

Registration Form for WFC Scientific Committee

Personal Info.

Name: Wang Qiang

Title: Dr., Prof., Vice-president of Northeastern University

Affiliation: Northeastern University, China

Research Interest

- Low dimensional materials under high magnetic field.
- Control of solidification process under high magnetic field.
- New electromagnetic metallurgical technologies.
- Thermoelectric, electroluminescent and magneto-mechanical energy conversion.

Main Achievements (<200 words)

Dr. Qiang Wang's original contributions have been evidenced by 7 professional books, over 400 peer-reviewed top journal papers, and 85 national and 7 international patents. He has received 5 international awards. He has chaired 2 international and 6 national conferences and served as organizing committee member of 3 international conferences. He has made more than 70 presentations as the invited speaker (including plenary, keynote, and invited talks) at the international conferences.